

Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg (FAU) is one of the largest universities in Germany. With its five faculties, FAU offers an almost unique scope of subjects ranging from the Humanities to Law and Economics as well as Sciences, Medicine and Engineering. The close collaboration between the single disciplines is reflected by the University's Mission Statement "Advance through Networks". FAU thus offers perfect conditions for interdisciplinary research and learning to students and scientists alike.

The Elite Master's program Standards of Decision-Making Across Cultures of the Elite Network of Bavaria at Friedrich-Alexander-University Erlangen-Nuremberg offers a research fellowship starting 1st of October 2017.

Research Fellow

(100%, TV-L E13, initially limited to one year)

The research fellowship works closely with the yearly changing guest professorship of the program. Most important beside this is the assumption of the sinological teaching assignment as well as the general support of the program's organization, events and public relations activities.

Tasks and Responsibilities:

- Support of and close collaboration with the guest professorship
- Teaching assignments (at least 5 hours per week and semester in Mandarin Chinese)
- Preparation and follow-up of events
- Support of publications
- Website maintenance
- Public relations work

Requirements:

- Qualified degree with focus on sinology or east-asian cultures
- Proficiency in oral and written English
- Proficiency in oral and written Mandarin Chinese (academic level)
- Teaching experience (preferred)

The appointment is initially limited to a period of one year and can be extended for up to four additional years. In order to increase the proportion of female staff members, applications from female scientists are particularly encouraged by the Friedrich-Alexander-University Erlangen-Nuremberg. Preference will be given to disabled persons with the same qualification.

For questions concerning the application and for further information please take a look at the website sdac.studium.fau.de or contact the program's coordinator: Anna Schneider, M. A. (anna.schneider@fau.de).

Please submit your electronic application as a single PDF file including the standard documents (vita, list of publications, teaching experience, diplomas, and job market paper) no later than 18.8.2017 to Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg, Elitemasterstudiengang Standards of Decision-Making Across Cultures, Prof. Dr. Michael Lackner, Hartmannstraße 14, Gebäude D3, D-91052 Erlangen, e-Mail: studium-sdac@fau.de.
